

Darius Petrauskas

Consultant

darius_petrauskas@hks14.harvard.edu

+370 68500561

More information:

Darius Petrauskas have engaged in various consulting roles with private and public entities advising them on asset management, risk management, corporate governance as well as capital market development issues.

Darius' professional specialization pertains to financial modelling, financial markets and instruments, Basel requirements for financial institutions.

Previous to his current role, Darius spent 20 years with the central bank of Lithuania with prime responsibilities in areas of financial stability analysis, macroprudential policies, monetary statistics, investments and banking operations. From 2004 to 2013 Darius has served as a deputy Chairman of the Board of the Bank of Lithuania and was a member of Market Operations and International Relations Committees at the ECB.

Darius holds MS degree (Diploma with Honours) in Finance from Vilnius University and MS degree (MPA) from Harvard University. Darius is a CFA charterholder and has earned FRM designation from Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP).

Darius speaks Lithuanian, English and Russian languages.