

Pall Hardarson, President of Nasdaq Iceland

Biography

Pall Hardarson is the President of Nasdaq Iceland. He heads Icelandic Markets, which includes Nasdaq's exchange and central securities depository operations in Iceland.

Mr. Hardarson has extensive experience in the economic and exchange business in Iceland. Prior to starting with Nasdaq in 2002, he acted as an economic consultant at the Icelandic National Economic Institute. Pall was the Head of Operations and Deputy CEO of Nasdaq Iceland from 2002-2011, but took over as the President of Nasdaq Iceland in 2011. Mr. Hardarson is a member of Iceland's Committee on Corporate Governance.